

Department of the Army, DoD

§ 630.32

(c) Dual payment (reward and reimbursement) relating to one absentee or deserter is prohibited.

(d) Official transportation and personal services payment are not made for—

- (1) Transportation by official vehicle.
- (2) Personal services of the claimant.
- (3) Apprehension and detention not followed by return to military custody.

§ 630.29 Documentation.

(a) Payment of reward or reimbursement for expenses is documented by processing Standard Form 1034 (Public Voucher for Purchase and Services Other Than Personal). The following information must be provided on SF 1034 or supporting documents:

(1) Name, social security number, and last duty station (DD Form 553 or DD Form 616) of the absentee.

(2) Date, place of arrest, and place of return to military custody (DD Form 616).

(3) Signed statement by claimant that the agency qualifies for a reward under paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of this section.

(4) Statement signed by military representative documenting either of the following:

(i) Delivery to a military installation with facilities to receive and process absentees and deserters.

(ii) Military custody assumed at a site other than a military installation or facility.

(5) Army forms provided to claimants to support payment request.

(b) When required, military pay vouchers are prepared for absentees and deserters per AR 37-104-3, paragraphs 80310, 80311, and 80313.

Subpart G—Surrender of Military Members to Civilian Law Enforcement Officials

§ 630.30 Overview.

(a) This chapter establishes provost marshal procedures and responsibilities for the surrender of soldiers to civilian law enforcement authorities. It is the policy of the Department of the Army to cooperate with civilian authorities unless the best interest of the Army will be prejudiced.

(b) Provost marshals assist in the delivery of a soldier to civilian authorities per this regulation and applicable personnel management regulations. AR 630-10, Chapter 7, provides personnel management policies and procedures on the surrender of soldiers to civilian authorities.

§ 630.31 CONUS.

(a) Generally, provost marshal activity is limited to ensuring that a military detainer is prepared and signed when surrendering a soldier to civilian law enforcement officials (see figure 630.1 of this part).

(b) There is no statutory authority for a commander to deliver a soldier to a bail bondsman or surety. The surety must coordinate with the installation Staff Judge Advocate and the Commander of the soldier prior to attempting to apprehend the soldier. To preserve peace and order on the installation, military police will accompany the surety to observe the surety taking custody of the soldier.

§ 630.32 Responsibilities.

(a) In foreign countries, the authority of U.S. military personnel to apprehend, detain and deliver U.S. personnel to civil authorities of foreign countries is governed by the provisions of international agreements, AR 27-50, and the laws of the host nation. The extent of the authority in a particular country is determined from directives published by the OCONUS MACOM Commander.

(b) Chief, DAMO-ODL—(1) Coordinates approved requests for surrender of the soldier with the civilian law enforcement agency or prosecuting attorney's office requesting surrender of the soldier. Transportation costs of the soldier from the point of debarkation are the responsibility of the requesting agency.

(2) Coordinates surrender of the soldier with the felony warrant or extradition division of the civilian law enforcement agency or Federal law enforcement agency at the point of debarkation.

(3) Contacts the CONUS installation provost marshal with area of responsibility for assistance in the surrender of the soldier.
